

A National Juried Contemporary Craft Show

Why should I participate in this juried exhibition?

The Sleight of Hand II exhibition at Gallery5 seeks craft-makers who push the boundaries and definitions of craft. Craft-making is too often pigeonholed into traditional definitions of basic utilitarian objects in clay, glass, wood, or metal. In reality, most craft-makers are not unlike fine artists in many respects. They push new concepts, introduce new materials and techniques, expand old techniques and use traditional materials in new ways. Gallery5 invites craft-makers fitting this criteria to submit their works to Sleight of Hand II.

Winners will be featured in press and media outlets. Up to $1,000 in cash prizes will be given to 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners. Gift certificates will be awarded for honorable mentions.
